

Make Your Evenings Joyous with a Piano or a Player Piano

Nothing contributes more to happy hours than music. Nothing brings more satisfaction or pleasure than the appreciation of good music. A Piano is not only a source of satisfaction to adults, but brings gladness to the heart of every child.

We have recently received two full carloads of Pianos and Player Pianos. The best and most reliable firms in the world are represented. You couldn't possibly do better than examine and hear the splendid instruments we have on display in our extensive show rooms.

Steinway & Sons

Grands and Uprights

Art Apollo

Automatic Players

Starr

Pianos and Player Pianos

Richmond
Pianos and Player Pianos

Remington
Pianos and Player Pianos

Phone 2313

THAYER PIANO CO., LTD.

148-150 Hotel St.

STEINWAY HALL

SOCIETY

FT. SHAFTER SOCIETY

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)
FORT SHAFTER, Sept. 15.—Monday evening Col. and Mrs. Daniel Lane Howell were dinner hosts at their home in the main garrison. Pastel dishes, intermingled with maiden hair ferns, formed a most attractive centerpiece, while candles shaded in color to match the flowers, added much to the beauty of the table. Those enjoying the tea, Mrs. Howell's hospitable, were Madame Beaudry, Mrs. William E. Kendall, Capt. and Mrs. William E. Hunt, Major and Mrs. Edmund H. Hartnett. After dinner the remainder of the evening was spent in bridge. Those holding the honors for the evening were Mrs. Witsell and Col. Kendall.

Capt. and Mrs. Thomas A. Barker entertained at dinner Monday evening for their daughter, Miss Elizabeth Barker, those invited from Honolulu were Miss Elizabeth Rosenbaum, Miss Bonnie Scott, Lieut. Ed. Witsell and Dr. Harry M. Delbert.

Capt. and Mrs. Arthur Keithly and family, who have been house guests of Lieut. and Mrs. Raymond A. Hartnett, left on the Manoa for Tuesday morning for their home in Peoria, Ill.

Lieut. and Mrs. Benjamin F. McClellan are being congratulated on the birth of a son.

Tuesday evening Capt. and Mrs. Ed. W. Hartnett entertained for a number of their friends at a swimming party at the "Outrigger." The night was ideal for such sport; fair luna glowed so brightly that night seemed turned to day. After a refreshing dip the party had supper and later Capt. and Mrs. Hartnett took their guests to "Helen's," where they spent the remainder of the evening gaily tripping the hours away.

Those invited were Capt. and Mrs. Jack Hayes, Capt. and Mrs. Alden C. Knowles, Lieut. and Mrs. Charles L. Wyman, Capt. and Mrs. Arthur T. Dalton, Miss Katherine Lenihan, Miss Dorothy Harker, Lieut. and Mrs. Robert M. Lyon, Dr. Harry M. Delbert, Lieut. Charles B. Lyman, Lieut. John N. Smith, Lieut. Edward F. Witsell.

Monday afternoon, Mrs. James E. Bell entertained informally at bridge for Mrs. Charles S. Lincoln, Mrs. Edward F. Witsell, and Mrs. James Dougherty. Mrs. Lincoln, holding the highest score, was the fortunate winner of the prize.

Lieut. and Mrs. Thomas C. Spencer and their small daughter, Jean, arrived on the transport Sheridan.

They will occupy the quarters of Capt. J. E. Bell in the main garrison during the month, while Capt. and Mrs. Bell will go to Schofield, where Capt. Bell has been ordered with the Machine Gun Co. for a course in the school of fire. Later, the Spencers will take the quarters in the cantonment, formerly occupied by Lieut. Robert C. Calder.

Lieut. and Mrs. Frederick A. Barker entertained at luncheon on Wednesday for Major and Mrs. Carnathan, who were passengers on the Sheridan on their way to the Philippines.

Lieut. B. K. Stumberg of the Medical Reserve Corps, who arrived on Wednesday in the Sheridan with his wife and children, will occupy the quarters in the cantonment, formerly occupied by Capt. John B. Richardson.

Lieut. and Mrs. Frederick A. Barker entertained informally at dinner on Thursday for Lieut. and Mrs. Thomas C. Spencer.

On Tuesday evening those playing at the Bridge Club when the members met at the Officers' Club at headquarters were Lieut.-Col. and Mrs. William R. Dashiell, Madame Pearson, Mrs. Daniel Lane Howell, Lieut. and Mrs. Claire Bennett, Lieut. and Mrs. John S. Sullivan, Lieut. and Mrs. Alfred Rockwood, Lieut.-Col. William Weigel, Mrs. Edward Fuller Witsell, Miss Elizabeth Rosenbaum, Mrs. William Cochran, Madame Cochran, Capt. and Mrs. William E. Hunt, Mrs. Eugene H. Hartnett was the hostess for the evening, and showed most excellent taste in the selection of the prize, which was a pair of Canton china vases. Mrs. Cochran was the fortunate one, as she held the highest score of the evening, thus securing the coveted prize.

Those from the post to enjoy the singing of Madame Marietta Aldrich at her concert on Wednesday evening were Col. and Mrs. Daniel Lane Howell and Lieut.-Col. William Weigel.

Lieut. and Mrs. George M. Halloran entertained informally at luncheon on Wednesday for Lieut. and Mrs. Thomas C. Spencer.

Mrs. Frederick A. Barker left on the Makua on Friday for a two months' trip to the states. She will also visit the family of Lieut. Barker in Canada before her return, and the remainder of the time she will spend with her family, who are residents of Portland, Ore.

Miss Dorothy McRae of Honolulu and Miss Helen Ohnstad of Fort Kamehameha will be the week guests of Miss Elizabeth Rosenbaum.

Capt. and Mrs. Arthur T. Dalton entertained at dinner on Friday evening at their home in the cantonment. A most attractive combination of pink carnations and maiden-hair ferns marked the center of the daintily appointed table, on which covers were placed for Capt. and Mrs. Edwin S. Hartshorn, Lieut. and Mrs. George M. Halloran, Capt. and Mrs. Dalton.

Miss Tubbs of Illinois has been the house-guest of Lieut. and Mrs. Ralph C. Holliday during the past week.

Lieut. and Mrs. Walter S. Graecen of Schofield Barracks were the luncheon guests of Lieut. and Mrs. Alfred Rockwood on Thursday.

Miss Elizabeth Rosenbaum will entertain a number of her friends this afternoon at 500.

One of the most delightful affairs of the week was the musical given by Lieut.-Col. and Mrs. William R. Dashiell when they entertained on Wednesday evening in their home in the main garrison.

The chief attraction of the evening was Miss Tubbs of Illinois, who is spending the winter in Honolulu. Miss Tubbs has a beautiful soprano voice, full and rich and with a remarkable range. Lieut. Reinecke's voice, which is a high baritone of exquisite quality, was also greatly enjoyed. The solos sung by Miss Bonnie Scott, Miss Rosenbaum and Lieut. Holliday added much to the pleasure of the evening.

Those to enjoy this musical treat were Madame Pearson, Madame Cochran, Mrs. William Reese Scott, Mrs. William Cochran, Lieut. and Mrs. John S. Sullivan, Lieut. and Mrs. Charles L. Wyman, Lieut. and Mrs. Paul S. Reinecke, Lieut. and Mrs. Ralph C. Holliday, Mrs. Edward Fuller Witsell, Miss Tubbs, Miss Elizabeth Rosenbaum, Miss Bonnie Scott and Miss Eleanor Scott.

Among the members of the Fort Shafter circle who were fortunate enough to attend the polo match at napaiani park between the Army and Oahu teams, were Mrs. Daniel Lane Howell, Mrs. Howell Clinton, Miss Elizabeth Rosenbaum, Maj. and Mrs. Oran B. Rosenbaum, Capt. and Mrs. Joseph A. McAndrew, 1st Lieut. Albert K. B. Lyman, Lieut. William E. R. Covell and others. Everybody came home disappointed in the failure of the Army to win, but perfectly delighted with the individual playing of the members of the Army's team and with the excellent character of the game from start to finish.

HONOLULU MATRON IN SMART ATTIRE AT POLO

Mrs. Charles F. Chillingworth, "snapshotted" at the races and polo game.

Mrs. Harry Macfarlane leaves on Wednesday for a visit with her father, Mr. Dunn, and her sister, Mrs. Henry Foster Dutton of San Francisco. Mrs. Macfarlane expects to be gone for three months.

COMINGS AND GOINGS OF THE SMART SET

Miss Dorothy Fodmore left on the Manoa for a mainland visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. St. leave next week for a month at Lake Tahoe.

Mrs. Stanley McKenzie will be a luncheon hostess on Thursday of next week.

Judge W. E. McMahon, with his wife and daughter, are visitors in Honolulu.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Moier of Kekaha, Kauai, left on the Manoa for San Francisco.

Dr. and Mrs. W. A. Schwallie are home after a three months' trip to San Francisco.

Brie-Gen. and Mrs. F. S. Strong were home-coming passengers on Wednesday's transport.

Maj. E. C. Carnahan, Mrs. Carnahan and their daughter arrived on the transport Sherman.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Cooke, Miss Emily Cooke and J. P. Cooke, Jr., left on the Manoa for New York City.

Mrs. James B. Houston is planning to entertain a company of guests at luncheon Friday of next week.

Lieut. Edmund A. Bayley, with Mrs. Bayley and their five children, arrived on the transport Sherman.

Chief Justice and Mrs. Alexander G. M. Robertson have gone up to their Tantalus home for the month of September.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Myers of Kilauea, Kauai, will arrive here on Sunday morning for a two weeks' visit. While in Honolulu they will put up at the Young. Mrs. Myers is a sister of Mr. Edward Dekum.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Clegg are home again after three months spent with Mrs. Clegg's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Waller.

Paymaster of the Navy George F. Dyer, with his wife and two children, arrived on the Sherman and will be stationed at Pearl Harbor.

Mrs. James Lord and Miss Jean Lawson, who are the house-guests of the F. J. Lowreys, left on the Matsonia for a visit to Kilauea.

Miss Vivian Buckland left on the Manoa to join her sister, Miss Hazel Buckland, who is in San Francisco purchasing her wedding trousseau.

Capt. and Mrs. Jack Hayes are entertaining on Wednesday evening of next week, honoring Col. and Mrs. Alfred M. Hunter of Fort Kamehameha.

Mrs. Jarrett T. Lewis, who has been the house-guest for the past month of Dr. and Mrs. Charles Bryant Cooper, left on the Matsonia for her Hilo home.

Mrs. Alonzo Gartley, Miss Ruth Gartley and Master Richard Gartley left on the Manoa. Mrs. Gartley goes to place the young folks in school and college.

Capt. and Mrs. Thomas R. Harker and Miss Dorothy Harker are now comfortably domiciled in the Mannie Phillips' home, 1640 Kewalo street, where they will be glad to meet their friends.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Dickson Bishop, who have been in Honolulu for the past six months, leave for San Francisco on Wednesday for an indefinite period. Mr. and Mrs. Bishop have been great social favorites and keen regret is expressed at their departure.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles Bryant Cooper are giving a dinner on Monday evening of next week, honoring Mr. and Mrs. Harold Castle, who leave on Wednesday for the mainland.

Mr. William Williamson left on the Manoa for San Francisco, where he will join Mrs. Williamson. After a couple of months' travel on the mainland the Williamsons will return here in the fall.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Y. Heebner and Miss Julia Heebner, who are visiting in Honolulu from Philadelphia, left on the Matsonia for the Volcano. They have been occupying the Buchly home at Waikiki.

Mrs. James W. Wherry (nee Agnes Wickstrum) has sent cards to her Honolulu friends announcing the arrival of a baby daughter, Margaret Janet, on the 12th of July. Mrs. Wherry is very pleasantly recalled by a lot of Honoluluans whom she met during her visit here four years ago.

Rev. Augustus H. Strong and Mrs. Strong of Rochester, N. Y., will arrive here on the Chiyo Maru en route to the Orient. Rev. Mr. Strong is a brother of Mr. Harry A. Strong, who is a man 80 years old and this Oriental trip is one of pleasure. He is well known to many of the families in the islands.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph D. Grant will be hosts at a tea-dance on the afternoon of September 16. A large number of guests, many of whom will go down from this city, will assemble in their beautiful home in Burlingame. Mr. and Mrs. Grant will be assisted in receiving by a group of friends—San Francisco Examiner.

DURABLE ORIENTAL HAND-MADE LACES

In collars of all styles, medallions in unusual patterns, doilies, luncheon sets, centerpieces and mantillas.

EAST INDIAN STORE

1150 Fort Street